Summary

Peace be upon you! My name is Shahria Jaman Khan. I am from a beautiful small town name Jhalakati in Bangladesh. With the experience of Graphic designing and web development, I started my first company DigitalGarage.space in 2020. Primarily this company serves with web development and design. Secondly I am a content creator. To me, the best way to learn something is by sharing. I publish significant things that I learn. Third, I am working to create a company that will bring advancement to technologies of rural farming in Bangladesh.
